of Symptoms. Thinks Fatal Outcome was Avoided by Timely Use of Cardui

Columbia, S. C.-In a letter from this city, Miss Carrie Meetze says: "I was a perfect wreck from sickness. fainting spells, dizziness, then numb and cold feelings.

At times, my feet were so swollen, could not walk a step. I also had backache, headache, was nervous, appetite good at times, more often not, and my kidneys troubled

A friend advised me to give Carini, the woman's tonic, a trial, I did so, and from the very first it helped

At the end of two months, the swelling in my feet had gone down, I continued taking Cardui and now do almost all my housework. I am willing for you to publish what I write, for the good of other women, for I am sure that Cardui saved me from the grave."

The symptoms described in the bove letter are proof that this lady was suffering from womanly troubl and her cure shows that she took the right medicine for her trouble namely Cardui, the woman's tonic, If you suffer as she did, do as she did, take Cardui, and it will surely roughs, colds and croup. ACCIDENTALY KILLED ON R. R. AUTO CAR

Sudden Death Yesterday of Felix Romo in Accident East of Higley Station orldge gang of the Arizona Eastern railway, met death a short distance east of Higley, at 9:15 a. m. yesterday A crew consisting of A. C. Hallomen acting foreman, John Sullivan, M. B. Martinez, Stephen Gillien, Fred Jacobs Mrs. C. A. Saylor and son Elson, Higley. They were on the small auto car in which the workmen ride to and from their labors. The car was heavily was running smoothly. On the right hand side of the front of the car, Marin front. Beside him sat Felix Romo. with his back toward Martinez, his the car. When about thre miles east of Higley, Romo suddenly plunged off rail on the right. Whether or not his struck the prostrate man and was thrown from the track, the witnesses center of the forehead sufficient to cause death. There was blood on the right front wheel of the ear showing that the man had been struck by the wheel. The other men on the car were thrown to the ground and a couple of them slightly bruised but not seriously

Hastily throwing the tools from the ear, the men picked Romo up and brought him to the depot at Mesa. Dr. Openshaw had been telephoned for and was at the depot to await the coming of the injured man. His services were not needed, however, for only a spark of life remained and that was soon ex-

Coroner Irwin was called in and an nquest was held which brought out the facts above stated. The coroner's jury was composed of S. W. Bowen, foreman; Hyrum Hastings, Charles Beebe, W. E. Reardon, Fred Horsley and Robert McDonald. After hearing the evidence the jury found a verdict of accidental death, while riding on a motor car of the Arizona Eastern railway and that death was accidental.

The railway company agreed to take care of the funeral expenses and the body was turned over to W. A. Burton & Sons, undertakers. Romo was between twenty-two and twenty-four years of age, and has a brother residing at Queen Creek. He was reported single to the jury, but it was afterwards said that he had a wife

He has been employed by the Allison-Davis hardware company, for the past month, and was driving the old grey horse to the light wagon used for delivering goods. Just as he started away from the store, a bolt came out permitting one of the shafts to drop. This frightened the animal and it started down South Macdonald street on a run. Mr. Rowland held onto the lines until near the South Side hospital, when he jumped from the wagon to the ground. His left foot crumpled under him and he fell I had pains in my right side, weak, to the pavement. Mr. Hines, who happened to be near, picked the injured man up and carried him into the hospital. Miss Ann O'Connell, who was the only one at the building, placed him in the surgeon's chair, and kept cold compresses on the fast swelling ankle while she telephoned for a doctor. Dr Palmer was in Phoenix; Dr. Doane out at the S. L. Brown home seven miles east of town; Dr. Nelson out of townand Dr. Openshaw at Chandler. The latter was finally reached and started as soon as possible for Mesa. Before he arrived however, Dr. Doane arrived and took charge of the case. The in jury was found to be a very nasty one for some time to come. Mr. Rowland Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Comand will no doubt lay up the victim has a wife and three children dependent upon him for support and the ac cident will fall pretty heavy upor
